

Patience

Patience handles its urges.
Patience keeps its composure.
Patience is a bulldozer across Time.

Patience eats lightly.
Patience is not greedy.
Patience learns many perspectives.

Patience can be fun,
Watching the others
Impatiently puffing with panic

To eat heavily
Become greedier
Deify their myopic point of view.

Seeing that weed
Laughing at its health
Patience shines without polish.

Patience shines.
It wants to understand.
It counts to lose count.

It will loan you Forever.
It does not own a moment.
It has seen itself change.
