

Proving Yourself

This is my torture.
This is where I come to prove myself.
Life teaches many lessons.

One of them is you don't need to prove yourself.
It's hardest to learn.
Looks like I haven't.

"Wuh-wuh-wuh!" bellowed
from the chest by the guy downstairs
as he walks in pursuit of second guy.

Always ten feet between them
they etch meandering circles first still bellowing, and holding his arms out from his chest like a sparring prizefighter.
